Market Technical Outlook

The Nifty opened lower and initially traded with a negative bias, but witnessed a smart recovery from the day's low, managing to recoup all losses and close in the green. On the daily chart, prices tested the 21-day SMA (25,755) by making a low of 25,740 and have closed comfortably above it. In the coming trading session, if Nifty sustains above 25,940, it may move towards the 26,000–26,120 levels. On the downside, support is placed at 25,790–25,700.

Broadly, the overall trend remains positive, and we are witnessing buying interest at lower levels, potentially driving the Nifty closer to its all-time high. Hence, traders are advised to adopt a cautiously optimistic approach and focus on selective, stock-specific opportunities.
